

Mayor Shawn M. Maldon - Planning and Economic Development Committee (PEDC)

The mission of the Town of Capitol Heights' Planning and Economic Development Committee (PEDC) is to provide an opportunity for residents to have input in the direction and growth of the town's business district, to support small businesses within the town, and to foster a strong, talented, and educated business community and workforce. The PEDC will deliver learning, training and development activities that promote the growth and expansion of the town's small business community.

Council Member Rhonda A. Akers - Neighborhood Services Committee (NSSC)

Our mission is to Encourage, Educate and Support our citizens in the Town of Capitol Heights to participate and get involved with the Safety, Neighborhood Service and Property Standards departments in our community, working closely with the Police Chief and NSD Director...VOLUNTEERS are WELCOME...with your suggestions and ideas we can make it work for our town.

Council Member Caroline Brown - Education Committee (EC)

The Education Committee will create volunteering groups to work in connection with Citizens, Community and Council to improve community relationships through Education. These groups will assist with projects, meetings and events. The TV portion will allow community the ability to transform and create a world of imagination, enrichment, and knowledge through movement, speech and presentation. Residents will be able to partake in TV produced programs that will enlighten, inform and enhance residents, families and the community through arts and talents. All generations will be able to participate and be educated through learning of old and new discoveries, historical facts and bonding through plain ole F-U-N at Town events.

Council Member Renita A. Cason - Ethics and Legislative Affairs Committee (ELC)

The Ethics and Legislative Affairs Committee will strive to develop recommendations to address issues and concerns in order to enhance the quality of life for Town of Capitol Heights citizens of both present and future generations. The committee will also serve as a training ground for citizens who aspire to further serve.

Council Member LaTonya G. Chew - Parks and Recreation Committee (PARC)

The mission of the Recreation Committee is to create diverse recreational opportunities to increase the social, cultural, and physical well-being of the residents and visitors of the Town of Capitol Heights. In fulfilling its mission, the Recreation Committee shall work in alignment with other committees, Councilmembers and Mayor of the Town of Capitol Heights to perform specified functions, which include advisory capacity, plan and promote activities/events, evaluate events, give feedback for possible improvements, and identify opportunities for funding and/or partnership to implement a community center facility. Meetings shall occur once a month or as necessary to carryout assignments and responsibilities.

Council Member Faith T. Ford - Communications and Outreach Committee (COC)

The Communications and Outreach Committee (COC) is as follows to support improvement of the Town's communication processes through more effective and timely dissemination of Town information to constituents; provide various accessibility to Town information in an effort to increase resident's awareness of Town resources, services, events, and activities; and promote resident engagement and collaboration with churches and nonprofit organizations to cultivate a community network of resources.

Council Member Elaine Williams - Community, Health and Environment Committee (CHEC)

This committee is designed to engage community around health and the environment that connects us. Members will brainstorm and execute sustainable ideas that advance designated community goals.

We have already experienced success in increasing engagement as our meetings average 12 participants to date. Membership applications are available and leadership is now forming. Supported projects include: Feeding 5000 Apprenticeship program, Prince George's County Department of Planning's Zoning 101, and Vibrant Health & Wellness's Living Vibrant – year long, health awareness project. Join us to take your part in our community growth.
